NEW BOOKS

SONGS AND STORIES OF TENNESSEE

By John Trotwood Moore, author of a "A Summer Hymnal." Illustrated by Howard Weeden and Robert Dickey. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

This volume contains the story of "Ole Mistis," which has attained a wide celebrity from its use by professional readers and reciters, and which first brought the author into notice; together with "Gray Gamma," "Miss Kitty's Funeral," and a number of others in Mr. Moore's inimitable view of mingled pathos and humor. The illustrations are notably excellent.

"Will probably renew the success of 'A Summer Hymnal.' The stories are most effective and the humor is of a first rate order."-Phila. Press.

KENT FORT MANOR

By WILLIAM HENRY BABCOCK, author of "The Tower of Wye." (Griffin Series.) Illustrated by W. Sherman Potts. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

The scene of Mr. Babcock's new novel is laid in the Chesapeake Bay, and several of the chief characters are descendants of the William Claiborne who figures in his former book, but the time is that of the Civil War. There is a curious psychological problem of inherited memory involved in the plot which is sure to attract attention and interest.

"The interest of this weird novel centers around a hypothesis tentatively broached by the author that there is such a thing as heredity of memory."-Pittsburg Despatch.

THE ARCHIEREY OF SAMARA

A Russian novel. By HENRY ILIOWIZI, author of "The Weird Orient," "In the Pale," etc (Griffin Series.) Illustrated by Stephen J. Ferris. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

This is a thrilling story of some very interesting phases of Russian life by one who knows his subject thoroughly, having been born and passed his early years in the Russian province of which he writes. It will be found of absorbing interest and of much sociological value.

"A romance, yet it is a great deal more than that. It is history, philosophy and romance combined."-Phila. Record.

"A powerful protest and an effective story."-Phila. Press.

LETTERS OF A DIPLOMAT'S WIFE

By Mary King Waddington

HE selections from Mme. Waddington's letters to her family which have appeared in Scribner's Magazine constitute not more than one-quarter of this book. The writer is the daughter of the late Charles King, President of Columbia College. M. Waddington, whom she married in 1874, was the Ambassador Extraordinary representing France at the Coronation of the Czar and the French Ambassador to England from 1883 to 1893. Mme. Waddington's letters give a remarkably interesting series of portraits and pen pictures of the personages and incidents of her official life during this period. Unconventional, intimate, personal, graphic and witty, these letters have an importance and a distinction which are unique in autobiographical literature.

SCRIBNER'S NEW PUBLICATIONS

The Principles of Money

By J. LAURENCE LAUGHLIN, Professor of Political Economy in the University of Chicago.

HIS important work is the first of a truly monumental series of books, planned by the author, perhaps the first American authority in this branch of economics, on the general subject of Money. In this volume he clears the field for discussion of practical details, such as Metallic Money and its history in the United States, Paper Money here and in foreign countries, and banking, by establishing the theory underlying them. The book is an elaborately organized treatment of principles, and constitution to the constant of principles. stitutes an original and novel contribution to the science of political economy. $3,00 net (postage 22 cents).

Agnosticism

By ROBERT FLINT, D.D., LL.D., F.R.S.E., Corresponding Member of the Institute of France; Professor of Divinity in the University of Edinburgh; author of "Anti-Theistic Theories," "The Philosophy of History in Europe," "Theism," etc.

THE OUTLOOK SAYS

TR. FLINT'S eminence among representative writers upon Theism commands attention to his treatment of Agnosticism. No writer that we are aware of has treated it so amply and thoroughly as here. Its history, erroneous views of it, its distinguished representatives, its various forms, its relations to various subjects, are successively discussed, both critically and constructively, so as to illuminate the validity of theistic belief."

THE WARD OF KING CANUTE

A ROMANCE OF THE DANISH CONQUEST.

By Ottilie A. Liljencrantz, author of "The Thrall of Leif the Lucky."

With 6 full-page illustrations in color and other decorations by the Kinneys

Few young writers have been so exceptionally successful as Miss Liljencrantz in obtaining the elusive quality called "atmosphere." It is the one absolute essential in a romantic novel, and it was the presence of this quality that made her first book, "The Thrall of Leif the Lucky," so successful. This new book is a romance of the Danish Conquest of England, with pictures by the artists who made the famous illustrations for "The Thrall." ($1.50.)

FELICITAS

By Felix Dahn, author of "A Captive of the Roman Eagles." Translated by Mary J. Safford.

The second volume in the great German author's trio of historical romances, based on the early struggles between Germany and Rome. The third volume is in preparation. ($1.50.)

A SELECTION FROM THE BEST ENGLISH ESSAYS

WITH AN HISTORICAL AND CRITICAL STUDY OF ENGLISH PROSESTYLE.

By Sherwin Cody.

Uniform with Mr. Cody's "A Selection from the World's Greatest Short Stories."

What Mr. Cody did so successfully for the short story in his earlier book he aims to do in this volume for the masterpieces of English style. "The Greatest Short Stories" has now been adopted by twelve large universities and over twenty smaller institutions. ($1.00 net.)

THE SOULS OF BLACK FOLK

By William Burghardt DuBois.

An extraordinarily vital and interesting book by an able advocate of his race's spiritual rights. Mr. DuBois is a graduate of Harvard University and a professor in the University of Atlanta, and himself a man of great culture, he has always contended for the spiritual uplifting of the negro as opposed to Mr. Booker Washington's practical and material theories. He is for right and justice to his people: Mr. Washington for policy and expediency. Altogether the book is a human document quite unlike anything that has appeared in years. ($1.20 net.)

REFLECTIONS OF A LONELY MAN

By "A. C. M."

A delightfully entertaining and original little volume, in which humor and philosophy are judiciously mingled, and distinguished by an unusual lightness of touch. ($1.00 net.)

CARTOONS BY McCUTCHEON

With an Introduction by George Ade.

When Prince Henry was covering this country, the Chicago Record-Herald followed his movements with a series of cartoons that would have made the artist famous had he not been so already. The originals now hang in the Prince's palace at Kiel, but their reproductions. and seventy-five or eighty others, political, humorous, and always delightful, will be found in this portfolio. ($1.25 net.)

THE LAW OF MENTAL MEDICINE

By Thomson J. Hudson, LL.D., author of "The Law of Psychic Phenomena," etc.

Nearly sixty thousand copies of Dr. Hudson's previous book have now been sold, and his new book, which deals in a bold and original way with a subject which is attracting universal attention, will prove an even greater success. ($1.20 net.)

AN INDEX TO POETRY AND RECITATIONS

BEING A PRACTICAL REFERENCE MANUAL FOR THE LIBRARIAN, TEACHER, BOOKSELLER, ELOCUTIONIST, ETC.

Edited by Edith Granger, A. B.

This will undoubtedly prove to be one of the most useful reference books ever published. Over 300 standard and popular collections have been indexed, comprising nearly thirty thousand titles, arranged alphabetically under three heads—titles, authors, and first lines. ($5.00 net.)

The Book of the R

By CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS Price $1.00. Postage extra

A book of love poems this, the author's latest and best output of verse. Fascinating and fragrant in every line, they well fulfil the promise of the title, with their delicate fancies and exquisite forms.

"The love of nature finds its proper voice in the song of the poet. From dawn to dusk, from daisy to star, the great All-Mother whispers her unutterable mysteries into the ear of this best-beloved son, and he translates her messages into words and melody. The close kinship between poet and nature-lover is seen in the verses of Professor Roberts."

The Redfields Succession

By

HENRY B. BOONE and KENNETH BROWN

Author of "Eastover Court House"

This is another Virginia story by the authors of "Eastover Court House," in which some of the characters in the latter novel reappear. Both in plot and love interest "The Redfields' Succession" is the more substantial and interesting story of the two. Truman Galt is an impecunious reporter in New York, and next heir to his uncle, General Galt, who owns the estate of Redfields in Virginia. Truman is in love with Virginia Sanford, a Virginia girl, whose father is a successful New York business man. There are many interesting scenes of Southern life and good stories of Virginians.

Post 8vo. ornamented cloth, $1.50

A story for boys, of the "Robinson Crusoe" kind. Two boys are wrecked on an island in the Indian Ocean. There they have experiences which tax their resources to the utmost—fights with Malay, pirates, and with sharks, serpents, and tigers. The story is rich in capital accounts of the strange vegetable and animal life of the place, and is a book sure to fascinate boys.

Household Accounts

CHARLES WALDO HASKINS

Late Dean and Professor of Auditing and of the History of Accountancy in the School of Commerce, Accounts, and Finance of New York University. A handbook of family finance. Its object is to save housekeepers time, noney, and worry, by showing them the practical, easy way of keeping simple accounts. It requires no previous knowledge of bookkeeping. Arranged with tables, etc., it makes a perfectly clear exposition of the best possible way of keeping family accounts, and will commend itself especially to women who do not like to be troubled with intricate calculations.

HARPER'S SPRING BOOKS

A story essentially of modern life. It tells of the trruggles of a young writer, Enoch Lloyd, with what seems to be insocial success at the price of moral failure. There are two women in the case, the two opposing influences. One is Céleste Moreau, the worldly, mocking daugh-ter of a French hotel-keeper; the other is Marion Lee daughter of Lloyd's publisher. Lee, daughter of Lloyd's publisher.

The Triumph of Life

WILLIAM FAROUHAR PAYSON

Author of "John Vytal"

The Love of Monsieur

GEORGE GIBBS

Author of "In Search of Mademoiselle"

A dashing romance of the seventeenth or eighteenth century, in which a man who is clever, heroic, magnanimous, and long-suffering falls in love with a perverse and capricious young lady, who leads him a long dance and falls in love with him at last because she cannot help herself. There are all sorts of lively adventures, on sea and land, in which fate throws the two together.

Frontispiece by the author. Post 8vo, ornamented cloth, $1.50

Stories of a militant unmarried bishop, whose work among the rough-end-ready men of Western camps, forts, and villages results in his sharing in many incidents of frontier life—comedy, tragedy, always drama. He has many experiences, some amusing, some thrilling, and these stories afford excellent pictures of life in the roughest parts of the West.

Sinful Peck

MORGAN ROBERTSON

Author of "Spun Yarn"

A very funny story of an unintentional sailing voyage to Singapore. "Sinful Peck" gave a dinner party to a number of old friends—respectable bankers, authors, etc.—and in order to win a bet he made them intoxicated and got them shanghaied on a sailing ship bound for Singapore. The joke at times bade fair to become a very serious matter.

Post 8vo, ornamented cloth, $1.50

In this volume of fiction Mr. Howells makes incursions into the unknown, and the episodes of the book deal chiefly with the psychical experiences of the people he writes about. The same idea runs throughout the book, connecting the three parts, which are entitled "The Apparition," "The Angel of the Lord," and "Though One Rose from the Dead."

Uniform with Mr. Howells' Novels. Post 8vo, ornamented cloth, $1.50

Questionable Shapes

WILLIAM DEAN HOWELLS

Author of "The Kentons," etc.

Rejected of Men

HOWARD PYLE

Author of "Men of Iron"

Mr. Pyle has told a thoroughly modern story of intense human interest, into which he introduces Biblical characters who are made to speak and act as people do to-day, but who represent the same principles as they did when Christ came. With a reverence to which no exception can be taken, the story introduces a modern coming of Christ. His poverty, His betrayal, and a vivid portrayal of the way such events would be viewed by the people of to-day.

A Puritan Witch

By MARVIN DANA

A romantic love story woven about the working of witchcraft in Puritan New England. A warfare of good and evil moods, of tenderness and cruelty, of love and hate. The narrative throbs with human passions, and while there are passages of deep tragedy, a happy ending marks the vindication of innocence and the triumph of love.

The movement is rapid, the feeling is true, the characters are alive. The plot is ingenious and distinctive, while the literary quality of the work is admirable—all in all the nevel is one of absorbing interest.

BY EDNA KENTON

"The novel, 'What Manner of Man,' is a study of what is commonly known as the 'artistic temperament,' and a novel so far above the average level of merit as to cause even tired reviewers to sit up and take hope once more."—New York Times.

"It will certainly stand out as one of the most notable novels of the year."—Philadelphia Press.

"It does not need a trained critical faculty to recognize that this book is something more than clever."—New York Commercial.

"Note should be made of the literary charm and value of the work, and likewise of its eminently readable quality, considered purely as a romance."

—Philadelphia Record.

"Literary distinction is stamped on every page, and the author's insight into the human heart gives promise of a brilliant future."

-Chicago Record-Herald.

By ANNA KATHERINE GREEN Author of "The Leavenworth Case."

Illustrated by C. M. RELYEA 12mo, cloth, $1.50

THIS is something more than a mere detec. tive story; it is a thrilling romance-a romance of mystery and crime where a shrewd detective helps to solve the mystery.

Unlike many mystery stories, "The Filigree Ball" is not disappointing at the end. The characters most liked but longest suspected are proved not only guiltless, but above suspicion. It is a story to be read with a rush and at a sitting, for no one can put it down until the mystery is solved.

DESTINY

By MOLLY ELLIOTT SEAWELL

Author of "Francezka" and "The Sprightly Romance of Marsac."

> Illustrated by A. B. WENZELL 12mo, cloth, $1.50

NE of Miss Seawell's most brilliant and serious works is this novel of Old Virginia. One lives again the patrician elegance of those mannerly times with all their freedom and all their limitations.

Miss Seawell's charming presentation of the old days, her sprightly humor, playing on the foibles of these early nineteenth century aristocrats, the tenderness and beautiful love of her heroine, show her as a brilliant writer and deep thinker.

Y., Macmillan, 1903. 5+010 p. O. Cl., $2.50.
A careful and very interesting selected catalogue of English prose fiction, in which the books of today find very full representation. Every title is followed by a note. While the annotator has not sought to appraise the literary value of all the books dealt with, the aim having been to subordinate criticism to description—still literary criticism does enter into the writer's selections and observations, a thoroughly helpful guide not being possible otherwise. Masterpieces and negatively representative works are inly helpful guide not being possible otherwise. Masterpieces and peculiarly representative works are indicated by an asterisk. The authors are given alphabetically by nationalities and periods of time; the books follow authors chronologically as to date of publication. The historical appendix, which embraces some children's books, is most useful, as are the carefully compiled "Authors and title index" and "Subjects index." Mr. Baker is editor of "Half-forgotten books" and Librarian of Midland Railway Institute, Derby, England.

Dudeney, Mrs. H: Robin Brilliant. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1903. [Mr.] c. 1902, 1903. 3+398 p. D. cl., †$1.50.

The heiress of Great Fanne had received a man's name, because the head of the house had always been called "Robin." The story opens with the return of Robin's cousin to Lesser Fanne, which he owns. The graning have been betrafted since childhood, and the cousins have been betrothed since childhood, and the story deals with the course of their love—another woman coming between them. An early tragedy in the Brilliant family casts a shadow over many of the scenes. As a study of village life and character, in Sussex county, England, the book is most claborate, and evidently taken from life.

Eldridge E. W.

Eldridge, F: W. A social cockatrice. Bost., Lothrop Pub. Co., 1903. [F.] c. 8-412 p.

D. cl., †$1.50. Traces the career of a rich and unscrupulous young woman from New Orleans, who comes to New York bent upon the conquest of the exclusive "400." Her social aspirations lead her to crush every one-man or woman—in her bath, who seems an obstacle to her progress. Her sister, good and beautiful, who in a moment of madness murders her, is one of her victims, the story ending with this tragedy.

Norris, W: E: Lord Leonard the luckless. N. Y., H: Holt & Co., 1903. [Ja.] c. 4+

N. Y., H: Holt & Co., 1903. [Ja.] c. 4+291 p. D. cl., †$1.50.

Lord Leonard had all his life "tried to speak the truth, to see it and to face it, feeling assured that nothing else is worth while." This devotion to truth does not work to the happiness of Lord Leonard, his life being a succession of unfortunate incidents, which wreck his whole career. At first, the son of a younger son, he is studying for the navy, a career he looks forward to with great delight. Several sudden deaths place him at the head of the family, making him a Lord, when he would rather have been a naval officer. Then the woman he loves is false to him—and so on to the end. This is told with the satirical humor of Norris's earlier works.

INDEX TO SPRING ANNOUNCEMENTS.

In this department the announcements of books to be published during the Spring season are indexed under author and title, with as much information as publishers were ready to give in advance of publication. Books which appeared before February 1 in our "Weekly Record of New Publications" are not included. Where binding is not stated the books are generally understood to be in cloth binding; "bds.," particularly in the department of Juvenile fiction, generally means illuminated or fancy board covers.

The Publishers' Weekly.

FOUNDED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

MARCH 21, 1903.

The editor does not hold himself responsible for the views expressed in contributed articles or communications All matter, whether for the reading-matter columns or advertising pages, should reach this office not later than Wednesday noon, to insure insertion in the same week's Issue.

Books for the "Weekly Record," as well as all information intended for that department, should reach this office by Tuesday morning of each week.

Publishers are requested to furnish title-page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, as it to be made as promptly and as perfectly as possible. In many cases booksellers depend on the Publishers' Weekly solely for their information. The Record of New Publications of the Publishers' Weekly is the material of the "American Catalogue" and so forms the basis of trade bibliography in the Light of State 1. of trade bibliography in the United States.

"I hold every man a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help and an ornament thereunto."-LORD BACON.

THE SPRING OUTLOOK.

Following close upon a fall and holiday season of such phenomenal activity as that of last year, the season just opening gives promises and signs of accomplishment of many important undertakings.

Though figures are sometimes inclined to be mendacious, after due allowances are made the burden of proof, statistically as well as in fact, points to an increase in the productiveness of the country; and while speculators now and then indulge in gloomy forecasts of the country's business, the conservative manufacturer and merchant, very likely from actual observation and experience, are inclined to take a hopeful view of the future of commerce. Among this class seems to be the publisher who, as a rule, is most sensitive to changes in the trend of trade. The publisher, judging from the announcements already made of books in press and in preparation, for immediate publication or for publication before the summer is over. is inclined to find the outlook encouraging. It is not likely that this hopefulness is based on mere theory, because this optimism seems to prevail. It even extends to the English publisher, for whom the London Publishers' Circular, for the first time in many years, makes a most encouraging report.

This feeling should inspire the retail trade with confidence, and encourage it to take every possible advantage of the feeling among their constituents. Above all should every enterprising bookseller be equipped to stimulate and create a demand for his books quite as much as to be prepared to meet the demand after it has been created. It is as important to sell well as it is to buy well. That may be a self-evident truth. But there is a trick in doing both that many dealers have still to learn, and they should make it their special duty to learn it during the next three or four months.

The publishers are providing books of a high average of quality to aid the bookseller in his aggressive work among his special constituency. With the lazy summer in view fiction has been provided for in larger quantity than all other classes of books. Biography and history, illustrated descriptive works, and "nature books" come next in numbers.

We have reports from more publishers than ever before in the spring season, all of which confirms our confidence in a successful season for the producer and retailer and an unusually satisfactory supply of material for the consumer.

THE STATUS OF THE SECOND-CLASS MAIL CASES.

THE Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post, under date of March 17, reviews the present standing of the suits brought against the Government by a number of publishing houses as follows:

The controversy between the Post-Office Department and a considerable body of publishers over the second-class rate question is just reaching a new and most important stage. Two-thirds of the bulk weight of all the mails now goes as second-class; this branch of the service returns, however, but one-twenty-fourth of the postal revenue. The secondclass rate, therefore, constitutes a subsidy of which thousands of concerns and interests are constantly trying to take advantage. The Department, having postal deficits in mind, is steadily trying to hold them back, and the question at issue is how much should be inciuded within the second-class privilege. Everybody recognizes the educational value of newspapers and periodicals, and accordingly there is general willingness that the terms of their transportation through the mails should be liberal. But how far can such liberality be safely carried? Congress, at its recent session, appropriated $25,000 for the employment of special counsel by the Third Assistant Postmaster-General in the prosecution and defence of suits now pending, or which may hereafter arise, affecting the second-class mailing privileges. This means that the cases which will soon come before the Supreme Court of the United States are to be stubbornly fought. Thus far the Department has lost four out of five, and unless there is some reversal of these judgments it looks as if the Madden reforms would break down. The question would then go back to Congress, which has persistently refused to settle it. The Madden regulations are essentially equivalent to the Loud bill, which was before many Congresses but always failed to become law, in spite of the warm backing of the Post-Office Department under every Administration, and of most of the members of the Post-Office When new legislation could not committees. be obtained, it was decided to see what could be done with existing law. As soon as Mr. Madden began to make exclusions, the parties adversely affected naturally rushed to the courts for relief. The present status of the case is interesting.

What is known as the Houghton, Mifflin & Co. case arose over the right of the Department to exclude the Riverside Literature Series from the second-class rates. The objection raised by the Department was that these were merely books published in serial form. It was acknowledged that they were highly meritorious. The complaint could not be urged against them that applied to the blood-and-thunder novels which the taxpayers of the country formerly subsidized New York publishers to distribute through the But the principle at issue the Department believed was the same; it held that it could not pass Shakspere and Milton and reject the "Mysteries of Murder Gulch," but that it must decide each on the basis of whether it was a book within the intent of the law, or current matter, and so assign it to the book rate or the current publication rate.

The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia decided in this case against the Department, in effect practically that it cannot look beneath the covers, but must accept a publication's compliance with the outward con-"Masters and ditions of second-class mail. "Masters and Musics" was held by the Department to be sheet music, which should go at third class instead of second-class rates. The law prescribes that a publication must be regularly issued at stated intervals, as frequently as four times a year, bearing a date of issue, and must be numbered consecutively. When the Government brought its case in the lower court only one issue of the publication had appeared. The court, however, took the ground that its future regular appearance might be assumed. These two Boston cases must go to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, and thence they will certainly go to the Supreme Court of the United States if the Department loses, and are likely to do so if the publishers lose.

The other two cases which the Government has lost are those of the "Official Railroad Guide" of New York, and the "Monthly List," of Chicago. These have already been tried by the Court of Appeals and lost; they now go to the Supreme Court. The "Monthly List" is a publication of railroad officers, which varies only as changes are made to keep it up to date. The Department rejected it on the ground that it was not a periodical publication within the limit of the law, as the matter carried in it was substantially a reference book in the nature of a directory. A like argument was made by the Department in the matter of "Railroad Guide."

The only case where the Government has won a victory is in what is known as the "Business College" case. The publications of business colleges, consisting largely of selfadvertisement, and in many instances carrying general advertising besides, have been going through the mails as those of incorporated institutions of learning. The Department held that to receive this benefit the institutions must be organized for the public benefit and not for private gain. This case will doubtless be appealed by the business college people, and will not reach a settlement until the Supreme Court makes its decision. The Department hopes for early action in all these cases, in order that it may know what it is about and appeal to Congress for new legislation accordingly.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY'S WORK.

THE annual meeting of the American Tract Society was held in the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church at Washington March 15, Mr. Justice Brewer of the Supreme Court presid-The report, presented by the Rev. Judson Swift Field, secretary at New York, sets for the purpose of "diffusing the knowledge of Christ as the Redeemer of sinners by means of the printed page." Publications have been issued during the year in English, German, Italian, Bohemian, Polish, Hungarian, Spanish, Benge, Bulu, Fang and Marshall Island, and the number of distinct publications has reached about 9000, of which 2000 are volumes. The whole number of publications for seventy-eight years, including volumes, tracts and periodicals, is 800,000,000, which does not mention the millions of tracts and volumes published at missionary stations in foreign countries. The number of periodicals circulated during twelve months amounts to 1,750,-000 and the number of languages or dialects in which the society has published is now

The total distribution of Christian literature in Spanish for the year aggregates 2,000,000 pages, the greater part of which has been used in the mission stations in the islands. Excellent work has also been accomplished in the army and navy.

DENTON'S "BRIEF DESCRIPTION" FETCHES $625.

AT Bangs' auction rooms on the afternoon of March 16 a copy of Denton's "Brief Description of New York" was sold for $625. The book was bought by a dealer for a customer whose name was not made public. No copy of this book has been sold at auction in the United States in twelve years, and the book so rarely comes into the market that no price is quoted on it in the current price reports. There has been a report that a New York bookseller has been offering a copy of this book for $2000.

AN IRISH-ENGLISH DICTIONARY.

An appeal has been made to the Irish-American priests of this country in behalf of the work of completing the Irish-English dictionary which is now being compiled in Dublin. The appeal is made by Archbishop Walsh of Dublin, who says:

For years I have thought it a disgrace to us all that Irish is the one language which our Irish students are left to study without having the elementary aid afforded by a dictionary. It were better to give up all talk of the revival of interest in the Irish language in Ireland if, for the want of a few hundred pounds, we leave the students of it without the help of a dictionary.

Archbishop Walsh has volunteered to assume personally one-tenth of the cost of compiling this dictionary. It is being edited by the Rev. Dr. P. S. Dinneen, under the auspices of the Irish Texts Society. It will incorporate the modern parts of existing dictionaries and every page of it will be carefully collated with Peter O'Connell's great manuscript dictionary, which took thirty years to compile.

A large part of the work is nearly done and a mass of the material for the other parts has been collected. It is expected that the work will be finished by the end of the year. A number of American colleges and universities with Gaelic in their curriculum have agreed to include the dictionary in their lists.

DOESN'T WANT TO BE DUNNED.

A WEEK or two before E. H. Loveless resigned his position as secretary of the Stationers' Board of Trade he was arrested on complaint of William H. England, a publisher of Temple Court, New York, who charved that on January 28 he received a written and printed circular from the Stationers' Board of Trade, signed by Mr. Loveless, in which he was notified that unless he paid a certain claim for $15, the members of the Board would be notified of his failure to do so.

The form, which was signed by Mr. Loveless, read in part as follows:

"It is desirable that a settlement of this claim should be made without it being placed in the hands of an attorney, as in that event it will become our duty under the by-laws of the board to notify members (per accompanying list) that such action has been taken."

The arrest was made under a portion of Section 559 of the Penal Code, which makes the sending of a letter "with intent thereby to cause annoyance to any person" a misdemenar

Magistrate Breen adjourned the case in order that briefs might be submitted by both sides, and a thorough search through records of cases under that section of the code failed to disclose one case in which any court had passed upon that portion of the section under which Mr. Loveless was arrested. Mr. Loveless stated at the time of his arrest that the Stationers' Board of Trade had been using the same form for the purpose of collecting debts for twenty years.

If the case should go against the Stationers' Board of Trade the decision might have the effect of putting out of business every collection agency who resort to similar means of reminding debtors of their obligations.

BOOKTRADE ASSOCIATIONS. THE BOOKSELLERS' LEAGUE.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of The Booksellers' League, held at the office of the Baker & Taylor Company, on the evening of March 18, Mr. Francis Gilman was reelected Secretary of the League and Mr. James B. Brigham, Treasurer.

It was decided to begin with the April dinner the "Roll Call." The question to come up for discussion will be "Which is the best salesman—the one who intelligently supplies a demand, or the one who creates a demand and then supplies it?" The dinner will be given a week later than usual, namely, April

It was also proposed to make the meeting in May a "Ladies Night," at which members may introduce their relatives and friends of Extra tickets will be $2 the gentler sex. the plate, members, of course, being admitted on their yearly dues. The Entertainment Committee promise an enjoyable evening, and are making arrangements to have some leading women as well as men among the speakers and entertainers. As it is intended to provide special favors for the ladies, it is desirable that such members as may think well of the project and expect to be present, notify the chairman of the committee, Mr. Charles E. Butler, at Brentano's, 5 Union Square, New York, as far in advance as possible, of the number of guests for which they wish provisions made.

OBITUARY NOTES.

Ernest Gabriel Jean Baptiste Wilfrid Legouvé, dramatist, died on the 14th inst., in Paris, where he was born February 15, 1807. Most of his work was done in collaboration with Eugene Sue, notably "Adrienne Locouvreur."

James H. Connelly, a writer on theosophical subjects, died March 15 in New York City, aged sixty-three, having been born in Pittsburg, Pa., in 1840. He was the author of several novels, among them "My Casual Death," and "Neila Sen," and many works and magazine articles on theosophy. He was an intimate friend of Madame Blavatsky and William Q. Judge.

WILLIAM EDGAR SIMONDS, who, while in Congress, secured the passage through the House, after a vigorous fight, of an international copyright bill, died at Hartford, Conn., March 14. He was born at Canton, Conn., November 25, 1841, and was the author of "Digest of Patent Causes," "Digest of Patent Office Decisions," "Design Patents" and a small work known as a summary of patent laws; also, "Whither: a Study of Immortality." For his services in behalf of international copyright France made Mr. Simonds a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

Jacob Schoenhof, a writer on economic subjects, died March 14 in New York City. Mr. Schoenhof was born in Oppenheim on the Rhine in 1839, the son of a school teacher. He came to this country in 1861 and was then in the wholesale lace business until 1884 when he retired. He was United States Consul at Tunstall, England, during President Cleveland's administration; acting as confidential agent under Secretary Bayard he studied and reported on the industrial conditions in France, England, Germany and Ireland. In 1893 he was assistant appraiser at the port of New York having charge of the Sixth Division. He was the author of "Destructive Influence of the Tariff upon Manufacture and Commerce," "The Industrial Situation and the Question of Wages," "Technical Education in Europe," and "Money and Prices." He had just finished reading the last proof sheets of his new book, "Industrial France."

IOURNALISTIC NOTES.

Harper's Magazine will shortly begin to publish serially a new collection of "Chester Tales," by Mrs. Margaret Deland.

A NEW periodical for librarians and book-lovers has been started in Holland, with offices in Antwerp and Ghent, entitled Tijdschrift voor Boek-& Bibliotheekwezen. The editors are Emm. de Bom, Va. de la Montagne and W. de Vreese. The first number is dated January, 1903.

The Revue des Bibliothèques et Archives de Belgique is the title of a new bi-monthly journal devoted to library interests published in Brussels under the editorial direction of L. Stainier, of the Bibliothèque Royale. The library department of the periodical will be edited by O. Grojean. The first issue is a double number and dated January-February, 1903.

MISS JOSEPHINE DODGE DASKAM, or as she hereafter prefers to be called, Josephine Daskam, has completed her "Memoirs of a Baby," which will be published serially in Harper's Bazar. The first instalment deals with the amusing perplexities of the prospective young mother. Miss Daskam's irresistible humor seems to have found its keenest play in the new story. In view of the fact that Miss Daskam is soon to be married to Mr. Selden Bacon, it hardly seems worth while to bother about her maiden name.

The first number of the new issue of the Metropolitan Magazine, recently purchased by Colonel George Harvey and now edited by Mr. John Kendrick Bangs, will be that of April, and will be published to-day. The leading features of this initial number will be a serial story of New York City, by William Dean Howells, entitled "Letters Home," and an article by Mark Twain, illustrated by himself, in which he gives amusing instructions to would-be artists. President Jacob Cantor contributes an article entitled "The Future of Manhattan," and there are many other contributions of note.

The University Press, Cambridge, Mass., has just brought out the first number of a very handsome illustrated magazine of the art of printing and of the allied trades, entitled The Printing Art. Encouraged by the widespread interest which at present exists among printers, publishers, and all lovers of printing in the art of printing the publishers have undertaken to conduct the magazine upon the highest plane. They will present from time to time articles upon general subjects relating to the field which the magazine covers, written by the best-known authorities, and will demonstrate by actual examples the best work which is to-day being issued from the establishments of the foremost printers and their allied branches. The latter feature will be dominant, and with much reason, because an example of work, presented by actual work printed upon its own paper, is bound to give the reader a better idea of the art by which it has been accomplished than pages of explana-tion. In this direction The Printing Art will have the field to itself; and if the first number is a fair sample its directors are well qualified for the work. Dr. Garnett contributes an article on "Foreshadowings of Printing;" "Modern 'Special' Types;" and Ross Turner writers of "The Printer as an Artist." The format of The Printing Art is folio, and the subscription price is $3 a year, or 35 cents a number.

BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTES.

SIGNOR GIUSEPPE GIRARDI, 22 Crampton Road, London, Eng., is at work upon a "Bibliotheca Mormonica," and wishes to come into communication with persons interested in the subject.

COLONEL W. E. PRIDEAUX has about completed his long promised "Bibliography of Stevenson's Works in Prose and Verse," which will also contain, in an appendix, a list of the principal books and articles in periodicals relating to Stevenson. The book will be uniform with the Edinburgh edition of Stevenson's works.

Dodd, Mead & Co. have just brought out "A Catalogue of a Collection of Books, Letters and Manuscripts written by Walt Whitman, in the Library of George M. Williamson." This account of Mr. Williamson's collection of manuscripts by Whitman is easily the best collector's bibliography so far issued. His collection includes several items apparently never before described in print. An early form of the "Leaves of Grass," 1855, in printed paper cover, may perhaps be unique. The facsimiles of manuscripts, letters and corrected proofs are of special interest, showing as they do Whitman's method of work. The volume has been printed at the Marion Press, and contains a number of portraits and facsimiles.

BUSINESS NOTES.

CHICAGO, ILL.—Everett B. Farnham, bookseller, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy.

Nashville, Tenn.—On March 7 the Goodpasture Book Company, of this city, bought out the old and well-known firm of A. Setliff & Co., and went into immediate possession. Setliff & Co. was one of the oldest book houses in Nashville, having been established in 1867, and having done business at its present location, 511 Church Street, for thirty years. The Goodpasture Book Company will continue to run their second-hand book business at 608 Church Street as heretofore, and will, in addition, conduct the business heretofore run by Setliff & Co., at 511 Church Street, in which they expect to make many changes and improvements.

New York City.—S. B. Luyster, jr., dealer in old books, has removed to larger quarters at 35 John Street.

New York City.—Isaac Pitman & Sons have removed to 31 Union Square, West, the new building of the Metropolis Bank.

PITTSFIELD, MASS.—Wilbur Steadman has bought the book business of G. J. Reuter.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

ELLEN THORNEYCROFT FOWLER, author of "Concerning Isabel Carnaby," is to be married next month to Alfred Laurence Felkin.

WE are informed that while the A. Wessels Company will handle and catalogue the publications of Lentilhon & Co., they have not taken them over, as was stated in our issue for February 28.

James MacLehose & Sons, Glasgow, have in press a complete edition of Hakluyt's "Collection of Principal Navigations, Voyages, and Discoveries of the English Nation." The edition will be strictly limited and sold in complete sets only.

Mr. Kipling sails from Capetown, South Africa, for England in the latter part of this month and his publishers, Doubleday. Page & Co., are authorized to say that his new volume of poems will be ready for publication before the end of the year.

E. P. Dutton & Company will shortly bring out "The Pathway to Reality," by Richard Burton Haldane, which comprises the Gifford lectures for 1902, which are generally conceded to be among the most important contributions to modern philosophy.

D. APPLETON & Co. will publish shortly in separate form those chapters of Lecky's "History of England in the Eighteenth Century" that deal with the French Revolution. A similar selection was made a few years ago of the chapters on the American Revolution that met with considerable favor.

THOMAS WHITTAKER has in press an anonymous novel, to be entitled "Until Seventy Times Seven," of which the keynote is forgiveness and the principal characters are a popular clergyman and his mysterious wife. The author is said to be the daughter of a well-known New York family.

Banrose & Sons, Ltd., London, have just issued a novel entitled "Thorns That Choke," by Florence Moore, which deals with present-day evils, and, as its title indicates, shows how the cares of this life and the deceitfulness of riches are thorns which ensnare and choke the germs of good in all classes of society.

A. M. Robertson, San Francisco, Cal., will issue shortly a novel by Charles Warren Stoddard, author of "In the Footprints of the Padres," "South Sea Idyls," etc. The title of the book will be "For the Sake of His Company: a Tale of the Misty City." Mr. Robertson will publish in April the poems of Herman Scheffauer.

The Fleming H. Revell Company have just issued "The Bible and Modern Criticism," by Sir Robert Anderson. The author is a layman of legal training and acumen. Thus the strong point of the book is that the author is especially well equipped to judge between conflicting views, and at the same time is not hampered by any professional bias.

The Hobart Company, New York City, will issue shortly "A Daughter of the Sioux," by the late Gen. Charles King, with illustrations by Frederic Remington and Edward Willard Deming. It is a tale of the Indian frontier told by one who knew from experience the many facts and always had the knack of making them interesting in story form.

The Saalfield Publishing Company, Akron, O., will shortly have ready "Billy Whiskers' Kids," (Day and Night,) Mrs. Frances Trego Montgomery's sequel to her phenomenally successful "Billy Whiskers," the delight of the children during the last holiday season. The text is said to be just as humorous and the illustrations even more telling and more brilliantly colored.

L. C. PAGE & COMPANY will shortly issue "A Daughter of Thespis," a novel of American stage life, by John D. Barry, the dramatic editor of Collier's Weekly. This is said to be a perfectly accurate story of American stage conditions. The author's general knowledge of theatrical life has been praised by many reviewers, and especially by William Archer, England's leading dramatic critic.

McClure, Phillips & Co. will publish immediately "The Joyous Heart," in which Viola Roseboro places her heroine in a little Southern village during the Civil War, and in the midst of surrounding tragedy makes her an exponent of the real joy of life. For later issue they have secured a volume of short stories by George Ade, to be entitled "In Babel," under which name figures Chicago, the scene of the several clever and artistically told stories.

OTTO HARRASSOWITZ, Leipzig, has purchased the remainder of the works of Dr. J. Platzmann relating to the languages of the American Indians, formerly published by B. G. Teubner. Mr. Harrassowitz has just published the second volume of the "Materialien" zur Kunde des älteren Englischen Dramas," edited by W. Bang, of the University of Louvain. The volume is entitled "The King and Queenes Entertainement at Richmond," ited by W. Bang and R. Brotanek.

HARPER & BROTHERS have just issued "Walda," by Mary Holland Kinkaid, the story of a religious community said to really exist in a Western State, in which love and marriage are frowned upon, but into which the fearless little god made his way in spite of laws and by-laws; also "The Substitute," by Will N. Harben, another excellent story of Northern Georgia. In April will be issued in de luxe form "The Poems of Charles Dickens," with bibliographical notes by the compiler and editor, Frederic George Kitton, the great authority on all pertaining to Dickens.

G. P. Putnam's Sons have in press a work on "The Anglo-Saxon Century and the Uni-John R. Dos Passos, author of "Commercial Trusts," in which the author advocates the union of all English-speaking people; also, a work entitled "Arnold's March from Cambridge to Cushes" by Lucis II. bridge to Quebec," by Justin H. Smith, Pro-fessor of Modern History at Dartmouth College, which is supposed to be an elaborate and technical work—a sort of scientific rendering of the author's "Prologue of the American Revolution," now running in The Century Magazine.

JOHN LANE has planned for a series of Country Handbooks, under the general editorship of Harry Roberts, well known as editor of the more technical series of Handbooks on Practical Gardening. The series opens with "The Tramp's Handbook," by the general editor, a vade mecum for cyclists, tourists and lovers of the country. This will be followed at short intervals by "The Motor Book," "The Bird Book," "The Tree Book" and "The Woman Out of Doors." Mr. Lane also announces "The Letters and Memorials of Jane Carlyle," hitherto unpublished, edited by Sir James Crichton Browne and profusely illustrated.

THOMAS Y. CROWELL & Co. will add two new volumes to their Trent edition of Balzac's works, namely, "Analytical Studies," "Dramas," and the "Repertory of the Comédie Humaine," a species of biographical dictionary locating every character in his stories. All this material is newly translated from the French. A new edition of the complete works, including these added volumes, will soon be ready in eighteen volumes. The two new volumes will also be published separately. They will publish shortly "Light in Dark Places," a devotional booklet by Dr. Newman Smyth; the second volume in their "First Folio Shakespeare," being "Midsommer Night's Dreame," edited by Charlotte Porter and Dreame," edited by Charlotte Porter and Helen A. Clarke; also, two volumes devoted history. (360 lots.)—Anderson.

to the "Life and Letters of Edgar Allan Poe." by James A. Harrison of the University of Virginia, whose Virginia edition of Poe's Works was published last year.

J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY have just ready "Spinners of Life," a new novel of New York society and club life, by Vance Thompson, who here offers his first novel, which is written with all the life of his very popular short stories. A strong esoteric element pervades the tale, which is illustrated by E. M. Ashe and Roland Kirby. W. J. Mills, whose "Historic Houses of New Jersey" was so well received during the fall, has prepared quite an original and interesting account of the early days of Princeton College in "Glimpses of Colonial Society and Life at Princeton College, 1766 to 1773, by one of the class of 1763." The writer is supposed to be William Patterson, wit, scientist and good fellow, who was once Governor of New Jersey. From the Lippincott press have also just come paper editions of Charles Bloomingdale's "Mr., Mrs. and Miss;" and of John Strange Winter's "A Self-Made Countess." "A Tar-Heel Baron," Mrs. Mabel S. Clarke Pelton's story of North Carolina life, gives signs of being among the good sellers of the season.

Henry Holt & Co.'s Spring Fiction

A SUMMER IN NEW YORK

A Love Story Told in Letters

By EDWARD W. TOWNSEND, Author of "Chimmie Fadden." With Illustrated Chapter Heads by HARRY EDWARDS 12mo, $1.25

Cheery humor strongly characterizes this new story, though its characters are largely of the "smart set," and far removed from "Chimmie." The heroine and some others who figure in the story come from the great spaces outside of the Metropolis, and increase the breeziness of the tale. The idea of these people making holiday in the city in the dog days is certainly a novel one. The characters and scenes are sketched in a few telling lines.

TIOBA

By ARTHUR W. COLTON. With a frontispiece by A. B. FROST 12mo, $1.25

Mr. Colton is already favorably known for "Delectable Mountains," and "Debatable Land," and his work in The Atlantic, The Century, and elsewhere. These eleven tales are said to contain considerable humor and to present a highly diversified gallery of Americans. Tioba is a mountain, which, paradoxical as it may seem, takes an active part in the opening story.

LORD LEONARD, THE LUCKLESS By W. E. NORRIS 12mo, $1.50

A new novel by the author of those truly great novels "Matrimony" and "No New Thing." The book is in a more serious vein than even they, and impressively tells a story that a less able writer would have been liable to make sensational. Some of the episodes are decidedly tragic, but Mr. Norris's humor is used in effective contrast.

RED-HEADED GILL

By RYE OWEN 12mo, $1.50

A very original story. The characters and scenes are strong, interesting, and often beautiful; and there is withal a very saving sense of humor. Red-Headed Gill is a splendid young country gentlewoman of Cornwall. Under a weird East Indian influence she is forced to live over again part of the life of a court beauty of the days of Queen Bess the famous Gill Red-Head.

THE TRIUMPH OF COUNT OSTERMANN

By GRAHAM HOPE

The love story of Peter the Great's German prime minister. In the opening chapters a vivid picture is given of the semi-barbarous people that the great Czar was to mould into one of the leading nations of the earth. Peter, dissolute and violent, but glorified by his will and noble purpose, is strongly drawn. Along with Ostermann's experiences with his patrician wife is sketched his brave struggle to continue Peter's work in spite of the purior rulers that followed. The style is expirited and connect. the punier rulers that followed. The style is spirited and compact.

THE PRINCESS OF HANOVER

By Cutcliffe Hyne

Extra cloth, large 12mo, inlaid portrait of "Capt. Kettle" done in colors, on cover. Price, $1.25

The advance orders on the above book exhausted the first edition before publication, necessitating postponement of publication from date advertised, March 15th.

A second edition is now printing and the book will positively be published March 28th.

With the possible exception of "Sherlock Holmes," Capt. Kettle is the best known character in fiction; this volume contains his best and most thrilling adventures and final triumphs. Mr. Alden in the New York Times Book-Supplement says: "Mr. Cutcliffe Hyne long ago made a reputation as one of our best writers. 'Capt. Kettle' has hit the popular taste, he is a great as well as an amusing creation."

Second Edition Now Ready of Miss Francis's Remarkable Novel

A Son of Destiny

The Story of Andrew Jackson

This is Miss Francis's first book. Published late in December, 1902, or about three months ago, it has already run into a second edition. Over 250 prominent newspapers have reviewed the book, in nearly every case devoting columns of space praising Miss Francis's work. It is doubtful if any novel ever published anywhere has received so much praise from the critics as "A Son of Destiny." As the Nashville American says: "It is a splendid story, splendidly told."

HOW PARIS AMUSES ITSELF

By F. BERKELEY SMITH

Author of "The Real Latin Quarter."

Profusely Illustrated with Sketches, Half-tones, and Drawings in Color by the Author and by Prominent French Artists Including Sancha, Galaniz, Michael, Perinet, and Others.

F. Berkeley Smith, who made such a success last year with his book, "The Real Latin Quarter." is preparing to follow it with another still more attractive volume. In this new work he will tell, with the assistance of several celebrated French artists, including Sancha, Galaniz, Michael, Perenet, and others, "How Paris Amuses Itself." A more seductive title and a more fascinating subject could scarcely be chosen, and when we remember that the author has lived in Paris for more than ten years, and has intimate personal knowledge of this great playground of the world, and that to the pictures grawn and painted by his artist friends he will add many of his own criginal drawings and photographs from life, it is easy to believe that the new book will be a graphic vitalization of the gay capital of France. He writes of what he has seen and known from personal experiences which rarely, if ever, come to a stranger.

Mr. Smith describes the quaint, out-of-the-way places of amusement; the picturesque side of the light theaters and the serious ones, together with the inner life of the theatrical celebrities; the Bohemian cabarets and the life of Montmarte; the day and night life of the bars, restaurants, and cafés; the life of the boulevards; types and characteristics of Parisians; the pleasures of the bourgeois; fete days and Sundays; the balls, carnivals, circuses, fetes foraines, etc. He unites in this portrayal the graphic skill of the artist and the infectious enthusiasm of the lover of fun and gaiety. His racy book will be published in April by Funk & Wagnalls Company, and the advance orders already indicate something of the wide interest and eager impatience with which the book

Appletons' Spring Books

A New Novel by the Author of "The Silence of Dean Maitland"

RICHARD ROSNY

By Maxwell Gray, Author of "The Silence of Dean Maitland," "The Reproach of Annesley," "The House of Hidden Treasure," etc. Photogravure frontispiece. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50.

Maxwell Gray in her new story has taken an interesting psychological problem and worked it out with that skill in secrecy of motive for which she is noted. The reader, although given several sufficient reasons for the change in the character of the hero after a certain momentous incident in his life, has no suspicion of the true reason until near the end of the story. The disclosure then comes with all the shock of surprise, following upon the frustrated though almost successful wrecking of Rosny's domestic happiness through the disloyalty of his closest friend and the disappointed affections of his wife. Here is the culminating episode in a married life of misunderstanding.

MORE LETTERS OF CHARLES DARWIN

Edited by Francis Darwin. Two vols, 500 pages each. Eight photogravures and eight half-tones. Cloth, gilt top, deckle edges, boxed, $5.00 net. Uniform with "The Life and Letters of Huxley."

Everything that Darwin wrote bore the impress of his sincere and gentle spirit. Even his most learned treatises disclosed the man as very charming. In these letters readers are sure to meet with that attractive personality which no one that ever came under its spell can forget. They are almost exclusively the letters of Darwin himself. Many were addressed to Asa Gray. Other American scientific men are also represented.

Third Large Edition on the Press

THE STAR DREAMER

By Agnes and Egerton Castle

"It bears on every page the touch of true romance.

* * * Here is a novel that cannot be too heartily recommended. It stands alone, in an atmosphere of its own, in a garden where flower romance and poetry and the old tale of human love, in a light that is mellow and golden."—New York Mail and Express.

We might give numerous other favorable reviews, but this tells the whole story.

FREDERICK A. STOKES COMPANY

5 & 7 East Sixteenth St., New York

LIPPINCOTT BOOKS FOR THE SPRING

By Prof. Angelo Heilprin, F. R. G. S.

MONT PELEE AND THE TRAGEDY OF MARTINIOUE

The first complete account of the catastrophic events of the island. There are nearly forty full-page plates, made up in greater part of reproductions from photographs taken by Prof. Heilprin himself. Many of these reveal the volcano in its climax of eruption.

Seventy illustrations. Large 8vo, 370 pages, cloth, $3.00 net. Postpaid $3.27.

By Horace Howard Furness, Jr.

MACBETH, Revised Edition.

The first volume to bear the name of Horace Howard Furness, Jr., in collaboration with that of Horace Howard Furness, his father. The most recent addition to the Variorum Edition of Shakespeare's plays. The notes have been revised. A collocation of texts is included in the volume.

Frontispiece. 8vo, cloth, $4.00 net. Postpaid $4.29.

By W. Jay Mills, Author of "Historic Houses of New Jersey."

THROUGH THE GATES OF OLD ROMANCE

Covers the early life of all the colonies. Collected from many out-of-the-way sources, facts and figures of real life charmingly interwoven in a web of romance. Lavishly illustrated by John Rae.

Illustrated. 8vo, decorated cloth, $1.50 net. Postage extra.

Edited by W. Jay Mills.

GLIMPSES OF COLONIAL SOCIETY AND LIFE AT PRINCETON COLLEGE, 1766-1773

By one of the Class of 1763.

Notes and observations by a contemporary, a member of the class of 1763-William Patterson, one-time Governor of New Jersey. Arranged with a view to explaining and supplementing each other.

Illustrated. 8vo, cloth, $2.00 net. Postage extra.

By George Moore, Author of "Sister Teresa."

THE UNTILLED FIELD

Mr. Moore in his most matured and in many respects most brilliant imaginative writing. Mr. Moore has been as widely discussed as any writer of English fiction in many years.

12mo, decorated cloth, $1.50.

By Mabell Shippie Clarke Pelton.

TAR-HEEL BARON

In the figure of the Baron himself, Mrs. Pelton has come very close to creating a new character. The Baron-tender, courteous, without fear, and proud to his finger tips—makes a strange figure in the North Carolina country, where he wins his way. Illustrated by E. S. Holloway. 12mo, decorated cloth, $1.50.

By Louis Becke

Author of "By Reef and Palm," "Yorke the Adventurer," "Breachley-Black Sheep," etc.

THE STRANGE ADVENTURES OF JAMES SHERVINTON

Publishers . J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY - Philadelphia

LIPPINCOTT BOOKS FOR THE SPRING

By William Eleroy Curtis, Author of "The True Thomas Jefferson."

THE TRUE ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The most recent addition to the "True Biographies" which have won such wide popularity and distinct success for their presentation of great Americans in an intimate and at the same time dignified form. His picture of Lincoln is singularly interesting and suggestive.

24 illustrations. 8vo, decorated cloth, $2.00 net. Postpaid $2.14.

By Marcus R. P. Dorman, M. A.

A HISTORY OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

The first of four volumes which deals authoritatively with that period of English history between the outbreak of the war with France and the death of Pitt (1793-1806). The remaining volumes will be issued as rapidly as possible. To be complete in four volumes.

Volume I. Illustrated. 8vo, cloth, $4.00 net.

By Clarence M. Weed and Ned Dearborn.

BIRDS IN THEIR RELATIONS TO MAN

A manual of economic ornithology for the United States and Canada. Intended to cover the ground comprehensively and to furnish the most recent data. A book for the non-technical as well as the technical reader.

Illustrated. 8vo, cloth, $2.50. Postage extra.

By G. G. Chisholm.

EUROPE-Volume II.

The concluding volume of perhaps the most widely known and successful library of its kind—"Stanford's Compendium of Geography and Travel." It deals with the Northwestern part of the continent of Europe.

Illustrated. Large crown 8vo, cloth, $5.50 net.

By A. Maynard Barbour, by the Author of "That Mainwaring Affair."

AT THE TIME APPOINTED

A story of mystery which promises to exceed in popularity the clever detective story, "That Mainwaring Affair," by the same author, which has passed through eight editions. The writer piques interest with a situation at once novel and apparently simple of explanation, but which baffles every effort to solve until the story draws to a close.

Illustrated. 12mo, decorated cloth, $1.50.

By Vance Thompson.

SPINNERS OF LIFE

Will surprise and appeal to the appetite for the esoteric. A modern novel of New York club and society life in the very best sense of the word. Mr. Thompson's short stories are widely known.

Illustrated by E. M. Ashe and Roland Kirby. 12mo, decorated cloth, $1.50.

By John Strange Winter
Author of "The Peacemakers," "Heart and Sword," "Blaze of Glory."

THE LIBRARY OF NOBLE AUTHORS

Ancient and Modern Bookmaking contrasted OOK-MAKING has of late years obtained an attention that has produced many and diverse results. While it is undoubted that the development of printing has been in the direction.

tion of producing books cheaply and rapidly, it is also true that, side by side with this development, there has always existed a feeling of reverence for the work of those early craftsmen, who dealt with type and paper as did the earnest artists in the scriptoria with pen, pigments, and parchment. Men like Barbou and Didot in France, and Foulis, Baskerville, and Whittingham in Great Britian, preserved the traditions in spite of the inevitable tendency towards the machine-made article.

William Morris and Modern Book-Making

WHEN the late Mr. William Morris established the Kelmscott Press, he was impelled by a desire to produce books which should evince those qualities of individuality and distinction which affect us so happily in viewing the labours of the craftsmen of the days of the Revival of Learning. Morris accomplished much; his work amounted almost to a movement. But, like most enthusiastic leaders of movements, his attitude was so far uncompromising, that he found little that was available in modern methods and modern growths. His admiration for the past somewhat blinded him to what was valuable in the present, with the result that his work is largely imitative. His type, ornaments, and general character of craftsmanship, if they have distinction, are yet too close an imitation of what the early printers ac complished to possess individuality. That Morris was not just to his age is, of course, indubitable. His immediate successors, the founders of the Doves' Press-Mr. T. J. Cobden-Sanderson and Mr. Emery Walkerhave fairly proved that type to be beautiful need not necessarily be after mediæval models and unreadable; and the movement originated by Morris is now being carried on to more legitimate ends, because fulfilled of the individuality characteristic of the present age.

THE aim of the projectors of the LIBRARY OF NOBLE AUTHORS is to continue this movement by an attempt to embody the best literature in such form as shall possess distinction as examples of craftsmanship, and, at the same time, be endowed with the individuality of the modern spirit of the printer's and book-maker's arts.

A PRINTER, adequately to present an author's work in the form of a book, should be in sympathy with the author's thought and language. The success achieved by Aldus, Giunta, Froben, Jenson, Plantin and others, was due as much to the fact that these printers were also scholars as to the fact they were master-craftsmen. This which was true of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries is also true of the twentieth century, and the printer must either be himself a lover of literature, or he must have the advantage of assistance from those who are; otherwise, his work will be but the mechanical result of the application of rules and not the product of individual thought. That kind of personal attention which the early printers gave to their work will be given to this series—publisher, editor, and printer will work in harmony to bring about the happy result.

FOR these ends, a type has been chosen (and other type will be designed) which is both readable and beautiful. Hand-made paper of the finest quality has been specially made by Messrs. Arnold and Foster, and the presswork—a most important factor—will be attended to by the most skilled workmen. The volumes will be printed in folio.

WITH regard to the books to be included in this series the title suggests somewhat the intention. By NOBLE AUTHORS is meant those writers whose works have nobly and joyously influenced the life of their own and succeeding ages.

NOBLE BOOKS IN NOBLE FORM—that is the sentence which best suggests the meaning of the series.

THE first two volumes will be:

LANDOR'S PERICLES AND ASPASIA.

II. MORE'S UTOPIA. Ralph Robinson's translation. OTHER volumes will be announced from time to time, and special prospectuses and order forms will be sent on application.

ORDERS will be taken for the complete series as well Orders as for single volumes.

THE AMERICAN CATALOGUE of books in print and for sale July 1, 1876, compiled under the direction of F. LEYPOLDT, and its supplements, 1876-direction of F. Leyfoldt, and its supplements, 1876-84, 1884-90, 1890-95, and 1895-1900, compiled under the editorial direction of R. R. Bowker, aims to present all the bibliographical features of the books in the American market, arranged in the first part alphabetically by both authors and titles, and in the second part alphabetically by subjects.

The Catalogue and its supplementary volumes form the only approximately complete guide in existence to the American books of the day, so arranged as to make reference easy from whatever direction the inquiry may come, whether from that of the author, or the title, or the subject. It not only furnishes the desired information about any particular book of which the consulter is in search, but shows what others there are by the same author or on the same subject in which he is interested. To the bookseller, therefore, it is valuable both in filling orders and in stimulating business; to the librarian, in supplying gaps and proporness; to the librarian, in supplying gaps and propor-tioning his collection; and to all who are practically concerned with books, in furnishing information by a convenient method.

The author-and-title volume of the 1876 volume is out of print. A limited number of the subject volume may be had in half leather binding at $15.

An Unique Contribution to American Humor

The AUTOBIOGRAPHY of a BEGGAR

Prefaced by Some Account of the Humorous Adventures and Incidents Related in

THE BEGGARS' CLUB

By I. K. FRIEDMAN

Author of "The Lucky Number," "Poor People," "By Bread Alone."

With 18 full-page reproductions in half-tone of drawings By W. GLACKENS

12mo, Cloth Decorative, Price, $1.50

Mr. Friedman's new book contains all of the chapters published serially in the Saturday Evening Post of Philadelphia, together with several new chapters now published for the first time. Although full of irresistibly humorous incidents, this is not a book of short stories, but a thoroughly consistent volume which the publishers offer as a worthy addition to their distinguished list of American humor—a list which began with the masterpieces of "Mr. Dooley" and which has recently included the "Letters from a Self-Made Merchant to His Son." Although the book is in no sense Sociological, the author shows a rare insight into the character of a curious class in American life and an intimate acquaintance with their amusing types. The drawings are in Mr. Glackens' best style, and add greatly to the charm of the volume.

GENERAL CHARLES KING'S LATEST NOVEL

A DAUGHTER OF THE SIOU

TALE OF THE INDIAN FRONTIER

Illustrations by FREDERIC REMINGTON and EDWARD WILLARD DEMING

It is now several years since General King has written a book based on the stirring scenes of the Far Western Plains, among which he passed so many years of his active military life. Critics who have read the advance sheets hail this new story with great interest and enthusiasm, claiming for it the true ring and action of his earlier books and comparing more than favorably with them. It is certain that his host of oldtime readers are still thoroughly appreciative, as witnessed by the large number of copies already sold before publication. Its literary merit is greatly enhanced by the telent employed in its artistic embellishment, and we submit that seldom is found on one title-page such a trio of illustrious names as

THE ANNUAL AMERICAN CATALOGUE, Cumulated, 1900-1902, is now in preparation, and will include in one alphabet the short-title lists of the books of 1900, 1901 and 1902, giving information of the books recorded by author, title, subject and series. This cumulation is to continue annually until a five-yearly volume of "The American Catalogue" in its new shape is reached. This form of catalogue has been generally accepted as a desirable, practical working tool for the trade, supplementing as it will do, from year to year, the last issue of the five-yearly "American Catalogue," without the need of consulting several alphabets in several volumes.

HIS FRIEND THE ENEMY

By WILLIAM WALLACE COOK.

Six Illustrations by Frederick Lowenheim.

A stirring tale of the Northwest wherein the old, old story becomes entangled in the plots and counterplots of a county seat contest. It has all the elements of a genuine romance, and is an unusually fascinating novel. The action is rapid, there is plenty of humor, the local color is true, the romance is holding, the ending is happy, and the story is vigorously told.

12 mo, Cloth bound. Price, $1.50

POWER BECAUSE OF

By ELLA STRYKER MAPES.

Illustrations by Latimer J. Wilson.

It is a novel attractively presenting the counterpoise of character and fate. Broad in conception and true in tone, the story is handled with distinct style. The spark of life glows on every page, the atmosphere is vital—electrified by the quickening currents of humanity.

Hamilton W. Mabie says of it: "There is a great deal of vitality in it—an amount of passion that gives it color, movement and go, quite unusual in stories from the pen of American women."

12mo, Cloth bound. Price, $1.50

THE VICTIM'S TRIUMPH

A PANORAMA OF MODERN SOCIETY By JOSEPHINE ZEMAN.

With the spirit of modern, progressive femininity, the way that one woman is made to stand by another who falls on her upward climbing towards place and respectability, is more true to present day life and the new attitude of woman to woman, than many people know of. This story clearly and forcibly portrays it. It will appeal to many readers and will be talked about among women especially.
